

John suspended about Nov. 1879, being insane, has not since been at the Mint, nor drawn pay. Reported on that payroll, as absent with leave.

Treasury Department

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., October 28th, 1880

Sir:

By comparison of the list of Officers and Employees of your Mint, furnished for use in the preparation of the Treasury Biennial Register, with the Official Register of this Office, I find that the name of Samuel B. Brewster does not appear on your list. Please inform me whether he is still in the employ of your Mint, and, if not the date of his removal.

Very respectfully,

R. C. Preston

Acting Director,

Adoniram Snowden Esqr

Supt U.S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

[Noted in margins:] Suspended about Nov. 1879, being insane, has not since been at the Mint, nor drawn pay. Reported on that payroll, as absent with leave.

E.O.L.

Treasury Department,
Office of the Director of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
October 28, 1880

Sir:

By comparison of the list of Officers and Employees of your Mint, furnished for use in the preparation of the Treasury Biennial Register, with the Official Register of this Office, I find that the name of Samuel B. Brewster does not appear on your list. Please inform me whether he is still in the employ of your Mint and if not the date of his removal.

Very respectfully,
R.E. Preston
Acting Director.

A. Loudon Snowden, Esq.
Supt. U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.